ST. BENEDICTS ACADEMY, ST. JOSEPH, MINN.

The institution above named is in charge of the Benedictine Sisters, is ably managed and worthy of generous patronage. Over seventy-five pupils were in attendance last year. The buildings are of brick, large, and well ventilated. As the Academy is only four miles from our University, it offers special inducements to those young ladies who have brothers attending our institution.

We cheerfully and cordially recommend it to our friends.

ALEXIUS EDELBROCK,

Abbot and President.

ST. JOHNS UNIVERSITY,

Collegeville P. O., Stearns County, Minn.

BORDERING on one of Minnesota's prettiest lakes, and near the lovely Watab, surrounded by a picturesque forest, one mile from Collegeville, stands St. Johns University, an institution favorably known to the greater and better portion of our citizens for these many years.

The St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railroad passes through the University lands. A large and substantial building 375 feet front, a valuable library, a flourishing institution, a thriving community, show that the Benedictine Order, established A. D. 525, is, as of yore, fulfilling its august mission. As early as 1493, thirteen members of this order, under their leader, Dom Bernardo Boil, landed with Columbus on Montserrat, one of the West India Islands, to commence in the New World the great work which the order had begun and nobly done in the Old, the education and civilization of peoples and nations.

In 1846, the Rt. Rev. Abbot Boniface Wimmer, with a second colony of Benedictines, crossed the Atlantic, settled in Pennsylvania, and, with untiring zeal, soon laid the foundation for a school whose fame has grown with its years.

The pioneer Benedictines of Minnesota, disciples of the above named Rt. Rev. Abbot, left the Keystone State at the invitation of Mgr. Jos. Cretin, first Bishop of St. Paul, and arrived in Minnesota, May 10, 1856.

In the following year they entered upon their work of education, in consideration of which the Territory (now State) of Minnesota granted them (March 6, 1857,) a charter constituting the "Order of St. Benedict" a body corporate and politic. From that date St. Johns has been on its forward march.

"Large streams from little fountains flow,
Tall oaks from little acorns grow."

Very Rev. Demetrius Marogna, first President of St. Johns, Rev. Alexius Roetzer, one of its first Professors, Revs. Othmar Wirz and Wolfgang Northman, also Presidents of this institution, have passed to their eternal reward; they have, however, left behind them footprints in the sands of time.

In 1867, Rt. Rev. Abbot R. Seidenbusch, now Bishop of St. Cloud, came to Minnesota and earnestly labored to advance the interests of the establishment. He was succeeded by the Rt. Rev. Abbot Alexius Edelbrock, who, following the example of his predecessors, is exerting his every energy to place the institution among the foremost of the country.

The University has an efficient body of Professors; conducts a Commercial College, which is fully up to the times and independent of the other courses; possesses a valuable apparatus and a museum with some rare collections.

It is evident that St. Johns is rapidly approaching a bright and glorious future. Its Alumni are to be found everywhere; they occupy noble and exalted positions; they look back with pride to their Alma Mater and bid her "God speed."

March 5, 1869, authority was granted by the Législature to confer all University degrees, and on June 16, 1878, Pope Leo XIII, gloriously reigning, in a special decretum, authorized Abbot Alexius Edelbrock and his successors in office to create such of his subjects who, after studying Philosophy two years, Theology four years, and Canon Law one year, are found worthy, Doctors in Philosophy, Theology and Canon Law, conferring on them the same and all faculties and privileges as enjoyed by those who have graduated in Rome or in any Papal University. By an act of the Legislature approved February 17, 1883, the name St. Johns Seminary was changed into that of St. Johns University.

Besides conducting the University, the Fathers of St. Johns Abbey labor to advance the interests of religion and keep divine faith aglow in the hearts of a population sparsely settled over a large extent of country.

The inserted catalogue of the Priests of the order shows the number of places attended from the Abbey, and any one acquainted with the country can see at a glance the extent of territory over which the labors of these Priests extend.

November 4, 1878, the Benedictine Fathers took charge of the Chippewa Indian Mission at White Earth, Becker County, Minn. They built a fine brick church, a good school, and a large parish house, at an expense of fully $25,000. No assistance worth while mentioning was given them in this missionary enterprise. An extract of a letter from the then U. S. Indian Agent, Hon. C. A. Ruffee, tells a tale:

"By means of its school and church the order of St. Benedict has thus far exercised a very beneficial influence on the Chippewa Indians, and is worthy of the respect and good will of all classes of society on the said reservation. As the said order has never, to the best of my knowledge, received any aid from the government, and as it is at present constructing buildings of great value toward civilizing the Indians located on this reservation, I deem it my duty to encourage the said Order of St. Benedict in its noble work and exalted mission."

On the 24th day of October, 1882, the beautiful monastic church, built in basilica style, was consecrated to the service of God. Four Bishops, three Abbots, fifty-two Priests, and many prominent persons from far and near participated in the celebration.

At the same time St. John's celebrated its twenty-fifth jubilee. In the fall of 1857 the University, which was then located about two miles below St. Cloud, was opened by the Rev. Cornelius Wittmann, O. S. B. It numbered then only four students, and consequently the venerable professor had to be contentus paucis lectoribus. Now it can justly boast of thousands who have finished their curriculum of studies within its time-honored walls.

On this occasion, also, an Alumni association was formed. Although the present buildings have a front of 375 $\frac{1}{2}$ feet, it was deemed necessary to add a new building of 400x60. This is now under construction and will be completed, and ready for use for the coming school-year.

As in days of yore, in the countries of the old world, religion and science were cultivated among the people by the Sons of St. Benedict ; so it is now in our young Northwest : Religion and science are extended over the country through the zealous labors of the same Sons of St. Benedict and the generous assistance of grateful and appreciative people.

From E. P. KAISER, St. Cloud, Minn.

I most willingly allow the Faculty of St. Johns University to use my name as reference in behalf of that flourishing Institution.

From JOHN CAULFIELD, Esq., Office, St. Paul Water Works Company.

I hope it will not be amiss for one of the old students to congratulate the Directors on the rapid progress which the University is making and to record his decided approval of the manner in which it is conducted. Experience has taught me that I enjoyed a great privilege, when able to avail myself of the advantage which the College offers. I can safely say that no young man can desire better educational advantages, a more delightful abode, or more solicitous care, than are to be had at St. Johns College. I shall advise all young men who desire to become good and useful citizens, to avail themselves of the services of the talented Faculty and extensive curriculum of St. Johns, and I hope that the Institution may grow and prosper as it richly deserves.

From ANTHONY KELLY, Esq., firm of Anthony Kelly & Co., Wholesale Grocers, Minneapolis, Minn.

It affords me great pleasure to testify that, under the present able management, the University of St. Johns is ably fulfilling the purpose of its foundation, namely, to give a thorough and practical education to our young men. With an able staff of Professors, who exercise so careful supervision over the students, the University must be considered a boon to the people of Minnesota.

From J. GIERIET, Red Lake Falls, D. T.

The best educational institution in the Northwest. Its Business and Commercial course cannot be excelled.

From HON. JOSEPH CAPSER, Sauk Center, Minn.

I must say, I have watched with pride the growth of St. Johns University from its infancy to what I regard as being now excelled by no other institution of the kind in the country, and I am proud to have my name associated with its praise.

From D. B. SEARLE, Attorney-at-Law, St. Cloud, Minn.

From personal knowledge, and reliable information received concerning your University, I can heartily commend it to all classes, without regard to sectarian feeling.

From REV. CLAUDE EBNER, Standing Rock, D. T.

Knowing the merits of Benedictine schools of old, as well as of the present, and the services they have rendered, both to the Church and to the State, and which they still render, I cheerfully recommend St. Johns University to the young men of the Northwest as a seat of learning and a home of piety.

From Mr. J. H. M. WIGMAN, firm of Hudd & Wigman, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, Green Bay, Wis.

I feel very well satisfied with the time my son spent at your University, and if he had to return to school again I certainly would not send him elsewhere ; St. Johns would be my first choice.

From Mr. WM. BUTLER, Little Falls, Minn.

I thank you and your Professors for the kindness shown to and the interest taken in my son. I feel very sorry that his health does not permit me to send him back, for I think he has done so well for the time. I assure you he speaks highly of your University and of your Professors, and he deeply regrets his inability to return to St. Johns.

From IGNATIUS FAZENDIN, Stillwater, Minn.

I believe I never did a better act than sending my son to your esteemed school. I am well pleased with the progress he made. I will always consider the money paid for him well expended, and I will recommend your University to all my friends.

I am very glad to see the progress my son has evidently made, and I am pleased to say that my high expectations when entrusting my son to your care, have not been disappointed.

From HON. KNUTE NELSON, Member of Congress.

You are quite welcome to use my name as a reference for the good of St. Johns University and its prosperity. In my opinion it is an institution of a very high literary character, well calculated to afford our young people of the West a thorough classical and scientific training, second to no school in the country. And in addition to this I believe that there is no institution which is so well calculated to make suitable provision for the physical and moral well-being of the students.

From E. H. MORSE, L. L. D., Attorney at Law, St. Cloud, Minn.

I, from a near acquaintance with the workings of the University for the past ten years, can confidently commend it to the patronage of all who desire a thorough-going and healthful education.

ST. JOHNS COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

The growing importance of this section of our State presses young men into active business life, and they must have ample facilities to obtain a thorough commercial education in the shortest time possible. The Trustees feel confident that they have amply provided for those who desire to qualify themselves as practical book-keepers and business men.

The Commercial Course embraces Book-keeping and Actual Business Practice, Penmanship, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law and Business Correspondence. All these branches are taught in the Commercial Hall of the University. Instructions in Book-keeping are given to each student individually, and he can advance as rapidly as his attainments warrant, being independent of the progress of others; he must successfully pass an examination in each set before he can advance to the next one. An opportunity for examination is offered every Thursday. In Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law and Business Correspondence the pupil need make but one examination, which he can do whenever he considers himself competent, provided he has completed his course of Book-keeping. All examinations must be made in writing. The grade required is 80 per cent. Each student, on having completed the Commercial Course and passed all the required examinations in a satisfactory manner, is awarded the Diploma of Master of Accounts.

The qualifications for entering the Commercial College are no others than a common school education. Regarding Arithmetic, it will suffice if one has mastered it up to Percentage; a knowledge of Commercial Calculations will be imparted to him in the curriculum. As to English, commercial students must write it correctly. The time for completing the Business Course cannot, with certainty, be determined. Much will depend on the student's ability and application. To give students not only a theoretical but also a practical knowledge of business, an actual Business Department, an "Emporium" and a "Bank" are operated. Each pupil on entering the department is furnished by the Principal with his capital in College Currency, with which a regular business is carried on. He buys and sells goods; draws checks, notes and drafts; deposits money and discounts notes at the bank; opens and closes his books according to the different forms of book-keeping, and thus becomes thoroughly practiced and eminently qualified as a business man and an accountant.

Lectures on specialties in Commercial Law are given by some of the first Lawyers in the State 5 or 6 times a year.

Besides the above named, St. Johns Commercial College presents another inducement not found in other business colleges. Many desire to take up some other branch of study while pursuing the Commercial Course; this they can do at St. Johns without incurring additional expense.

The Trustees, satisfied that the facilities they offer are unsurpassed, respectfully invite business men and those intending to commence a business career to consider the opportunities which St. Johns Commercial College presents; they purpose to prepare competent business men as quickly and as cheaply as it can be done.

TELEGRAPHY.

If not strictly a part of a business education, yet a practical knowledge of Telegraphy secures an honorable position to many a young man; therefore, a thorough theoretical and practical knowledge of the art will be imparted by an experienced operator, with instruments set up in the University, for which instruction an extra charge. $4 per month, will be made.

MUSIC.

This department offers first-class facilities. Professors of marked ability and highest reputation teach its various branches. A well-regulated Choir, a full Orchestra, a choice Quartette, and an excellently trained and well and favorably known Cornet Band of 15 instruments make this Department attractive for the lover of Music.

REGULATIONS.

The Academic year consists of ten months, and is divided into two sessions. The first session begins on the first Thursday of September, and ends January 31st. The second session begins on the first of February and ends in the last week in June.

Students are admitted at any time of the school year, but they consult their own interest who are present at the beginning, as they will have the benefit of an accurate examination, a precise classification and a fair start with their class fellows.

Pupils who enter after the first of November, or who absent themselves for any notable time during the year, or who do not return on the day appointed after the Christmas holidays, or who withdraw before the end of the year, have no claim to honors or distinctions for the Academic year.

Students will not be permitted to leave during the school year on visits of any length except at the Christmas holidays, and then only at the special request of the parents or guardians. There will be no vacation at Easter, and students are expected to remain at the University.

Applicants for admission, who have not attended another college, if not personally known to some member of the Faculty, must furnish a character certificate from some responsible person; those who have attended another college must produce papers showing their standing in the college they last attended.

The use of tobacco in any form whatever is prohibited.

All letters, papers and books sent or received by students are subject to the inspection of the superiors, and may be withheld if found to contain untruths, or anything dangerous to good morals.

Students who in any way damage furniture, etc., belonging to the University are required to make compensation.

After admission a student is examined and classed according to his attainments. No branch of study can be discontinued before the general examination, and then only with the consent of the Prefect of Studies.

According to age or requirements students are ranged into three departments and are in charge of six Prefects.

Classes are examined three times a year; in the study hall the result is read in the presence of the students and Faculty assembled; a bulletin reporting the health, conduct and progress of each pupil is then forwarded to his parents or guardians.

TERMS.

Cash for five months in advance is strictly demanded.

Should a student in the Commercial Course graduate before five months have expired, the balance, if any due him, will be refunded.

The University is not endowed ; it is entirely dependent for its support on the fees paid for board, tuition, etc., which are as follows :

IN CLASSICAL OR COMMERCIAL COURSE.

ENTRANCE FEE,	$ 5.00
BOARD AND TUITION, per session of five months,	90.00
BEDDING, WASHING, AND MENDING ARTICLES WASHED, per session of five months,	7.50
INSTRUCTION ON THE PIANO AND USE OF INSTRUMENT, per session of five months,	20.00
INSTRUCTION ON ANY OTHER MUSICAL INSTRUMENT, per session of five months,	15.00
USE OF PHYSICAL AND CHEMICAL APPARATUS, per session of five months,	10.00
DRAWING, per session of five months,	10.00
PHONOGRAPHY, per session of five months,	5.00
TELEGRAPHY, per session of five months,	20.00
VACATION, if spent in University (Board, Washing and Bedding.)	33.00

IN ECCLESIASTICAL COURSE.

For Theologians and Philosophers in their SECOND year only :

BOARD AND TUITION (no entrance fee,) per session of five months,	$75.00
WASHING AND BEDDING, per session of five months,	7.50

From the terms as above laid down sad experience has taught us not to deviate in the least. We will insist on prepayment in every instance, and those who are not willing to conform to this rule need not apply for admission.

Remittances should be made by draft, check, or registered letter. Money may also be sent by express to St. Joseph, Minn. Post-Money Orders should not be sent, as they frequently prove a source of annoyance.

Bills are sent at the beginning of every session. Persons delaying to pay bills are subject to sight draft WITHOUT NOTICE, and will be charged ten per cent. on all amounts due.

No student can leave the University before his accounts are paid.

Students will not be admitted for any period shorter than one session. Except in case of serious and protracted illness, or of dismissal, no reduction will be made and no money refunded on account of withdrawal before the end of the session.

No reduction is allowed for absence during the Christmas holidays.

Pupils entering the University about the middle of the month are always charged from the first day of that month. Such tardy arrivals must blame themselves for the additional charges. Students who arrive when classes have opened are a source of special trouble to the officers and Professors of the University.

The locality being healthy, and sickness very rare among the students, occasional medical attendance will be at the expense of those who require it.

The only musical instrument furnished by the University is the piano.

Books, stationery, medicine, music and drawing materials can be procured at the Institution, if a sum equivalent to the probable cost of such articles is deposited with the Treasurer.

No advance will be made by the Institution for clothing, pocket money or other expenses of the students. Parents who wish the University to procure any articles for their sons, are required to deposit an amount equivalent to the probable cost of such articles.

All applications should be addressed to

ALEXIAN ASSOCIATION.

With the approbation of Rt. Rev. Abbot Alexius Edelbrock, the Association was organized in 1879, for the special benefit of students attending advanced English Classes. To cultivate an acquaintance with classic and standard authors, to become proficient in the use of the language, are the objects which the members have in view. To attain this end, weekly meetings are held under the presidency of the Director of the Society, at which the associates analyze and criticise select passages, read essays, deliver speeches, or engage in argumentation. To secure the greatest benefit possible, all exercises are prepared and submitted to the Director previous to the day of meeting.

SCHOOL YEAR ENDS,	-	-	-	About June 25.

ST. BENEDICT'S ACADEMY, ST. JOSEPH, MINN.

The institution above named is in charge of the Benedictine Sisters, is ably managed and worthy of generous patronage. Over seventy-five pupils were in attendance last year. The buildings are of brick, large, and well ventilated. As the Academy is only four miles from our University, it offers special inducements to those young ladies who have brothers attending our institution.

We cheerfully and cordially recommend it to our friends.

ST. JOHNS UNIVERSITY,

Collegeville P. O., Stearns Co., Minn.

ORDERING on one of Minnesota's prettiest lakes, near the lovely Watab, surrounded by a picturesque forest, one mile from Collegeville, stands St. Johns University, an institution favorably known to the greater and better portion of our citizens for these many years.

The St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railroad passes through the University lands. A large and substantial building 375 feet front, a valuable library, a flourishing institution, a thriving community, show that the Benedictine Order, established A. D. 525, is, as of yore, fulfilling its august mission. As early as 1493, thirteen members of this order, under their leader, Dom Bernardo Boil, landed with Columbus on Montserrat, one of the West India Islands, to commence in the New World the great work which the order had begun and nobly done in the Old, the education and civilization of people and nations."

In 1846, the Rt. Rev. Abbot Boniface Wimmer, with a second colony of Benedictines, crossed the Atlantic, settled in Pennsylvania, and, with untiring zeal, soon laid the foundation for a school whose fame has grown with its years.

The pioneer Benedictines of Minnesota, disciples of the above named Rt. Rev. Abbot, left the Keystone State at the invitation of Mgr. Jos. Cretin, first Bishop of St. Paul, and arrived in Minnesota, May 10, 1856

In the following year they entered upon their work of education, in consideration of which the Territory (now State) of Minnesota granted them

(March 6, 1857) a charter constituting the "Order of St. Benedict" a body corporate and politic. From that date St. Johns has been on its forward march.

"Large streams from little fountains flow,
Tall oaks from little acorns grow."

Very Rev. Demetrius Marogna, first President of St. Johns, Rev. Alexius Røetzer, one of its first Professors, Revs. Othmar Wirz and Wolfgang Northman, also Presidents of this institution, have passed to their eternal reward; they have, however, left behind them footprints in the sands of time.

In 1867, Rt. Rev. Abbot R. Seidenbusch, now Bishop of St. Cloud, came to Minnesota and earnestly labored to advance the interests of the establishment. He was succeeded by the Rt. Rev. Abbot Alexius Edelbrock, who, following the example of his predecessors, is exerting his every energy to place the institution among the foremost of the country.

The University has an efficient body of Professors; conducts a Commercial College, which is fully up to the times and independent of the other courses; possesses a valuable apparatus and a museum with some rare collections.

It is evident that St. Johns is rapidly approaching a bright and glorious future. Its Alumni are to be found everywhere; they occupy noble and exalted positions; they look back with pride to their Alma Mater and bid her "God speed."

March 5, 1869, authority was granted by the Legislature to confer all University degrees, and on June 16, 1878, Pope Leo XIII, gloriously reigning, in a special decretum, authorized Abbot Alexius Edelbrock and his successors in office to create such of his subjects who, after studying Philosophy two years, Theology four years, and Canon Law one year, are found worthy, Doctors in Philosophy, Theology and Canon Law, conferring on them the same and all faculties and privileges as enjoyed by those who have graduated in Rome or in any Papal University. By an act of the Legislature approved February 17, 1883, the name St. Johns Seminary was changed into that of St. Johns University.

Besides conducting the University, the Fathers of St. Johns Abbey labor to advance the interests of religion and keep divine faith aglow in the hearts of a population sparsely settled over a large extent of country.

The inserted catalogue of the Priests of the order shows the number of places attended from the Abbey, and any one acquainted with the country can see at a glance the extent of territory over which the labors of these Priests extend.

November 4, 1878, the Benedictine Fathers took charge of the Chippewa Indian Mission at White Earth, Becker County, Minn. They built a fine brick church, a good school, and a large parish house, at an expense of fully $25,000. No assistance worth while mentioning was given them in this missionary enterprise. An extract of a letter from the then U. S. Indian Agent, Hon. C. A. Ruffee, tells a tale:

"By means of its school and church the order of St. Benedict has thus far exercised a very beneficial influence on the Chippewa Indians, and is worthy of the respect and good will of all classes of society on the said reservation. As the said order has never, to the best of my knowledge, received any aid from the government, and as it is at present constructing buildings of great value toward civilizing the Indians located on this reservation, I deem it my duty to encourage the said order of St. Benedict in its noble work and exalted mission."

On the 24th day of October, 1882, the beautiful monastic church, built in basilica style, was consecrated to the service of God. Four Bishops, three Abbots, fifty-two Priests, and many prominent persons from far and near participated in the celebration.

At the same time St. Johns celebrated its twenty-fifth jubilee. In the fall of 1857 the University, which was then located about two miles below St. Cloud, was opened by the Rev. Cornelius Wittmann, O. S. B. It numbered then only four students, and consequently the venerable professor had to be contentus paucis lectoribus. Now it can justly boast of thousands who have finished their curriculum of studies within its time-honored walls.

On this occasion, also, an Alumni association was formed. Although the present buildings have a front of 375 feet, it was deemed necessary to add a new building of 400x60. This is now completed, and ready for use for the coming school-year.

As in days of yore, in the countries of the old world, religion and science were cultivated among the people by the Sons of St. Benedict; so it is now in our young Northwest: Religion and science are extended over the country through the zealous labors of the same Sons of St. Benedict and the generous assistance of grateful and appreciative people.

ST. JOHNS COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

The growing importance of this section of our State presses young men into active business life, and they must have ample facilities to obtain a thorough commercial education in the shortest time possible. The Trustees feel confident that they have amply provided for those who desire to qualify themselves as practical book-keepers and business men.

The Commercial Course embraces Book-keeping and Actual Business Practice, Penmanship, Commercial Arithmetic, English Grammar, Commercial Law and Business Correspondence. All these branches are taught in the Commercial Hall of the University. Instructions in Book-keeping are given to each student individually, and he can advance as rapidly as his attainments warrant, being independent of the progress of others; he must successfully pass an examination in each set before he can advance to the next one. An opportunity for examination is offered every Monday. In Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, English Grammar and Business Correspondence the pupil need make but one examination, which he can do whenever he considers himself competent, provided he has completed his course of Book-keeping. All examinations must be made in writing. The grade required is 80 per cent. Each student, on having completed the Commercial Course and passed all the required examinations in a satisfactory manner, is awarded the Diploma of Master of Accounts.

No Diploma, however, is awarded to students whose conduct is not exemplary.

The applicant for the Commercial Course is expected to have at least an ordinary Common School training. He must be able to read and write correctly, and have a fair knowledge of English Grammar and of Arithmetic. The time for completing the Business Course cannot, with certainty, be determined. Much will depend on the student's ability and application. To give students not only a theoretical but also a practical knowledge of business, an actual Business Department, an "Emporium" and a "Bank" are operated. Each pupil on entering the department is furnished by the Principal with his capital in College Currency, with which a regular business is carried on. He buys and sells goods; draws checks, notes and drafts; deposits money and discounts notes at the bank; opens and closes his books according to the different forms of book-keeping, and thus becomes thoroughly practiced and eminently qualified as a business man and an accountant.

A course of 12 lectures on Commercial Law, by three of the most eminent Lawyers in the State, affords additional advantages to the Commercial student.

Besides the above named, St. Johns Commercial College presents another inducement not found in other business colleges. Many desire to take up some other branch of study while pursuing the Commercial Course; this they can do at St. Johns without incurring additional expense.

The Trustees, satisfied that the facilities they offer are unsurpassed, respectfully invite business men and those intending to commence a business career to consider the opportunities which St. Johns Commercial College presents; they purpose to prepare competent business men as quickly and as cheaply as it can be done.

TELEGRAPHY.

If not strictly a part of a business education, yet a practical knowledge of Telegraphy secures an honorable position to many a young man; therefore, a thorough theoretical and practical knowledge of the art will be imparted by an experienced operator, with instruments set up in the University, for which instruction an extra charge, $4 per month, will be made.

MUSIC.

This department offers first-class facilities. Professors of marked ability and highest reputation teach its various branches. A well-regulated Choir, a full Orchestra, a choice Quartette, and an excellently trained and well and favorably known Cornet Band of 18 instruments make this Department attractive for the lover of Music.

REGULATIONS.

The Academic year consists of ten months, and is divided into two sessions. The first session begins on the first Thursday of September, and ends January 31st. The second session begins on the first of February and ends in the last week in June.

Students are admitted at any time of the school year, but they consult their own interest who are present at the beginning, as they will have the benefit of an accurate examination, a precise classification and a fair start with their class fellows.

Pupils who enter after the 15th of November, or who absent themselves for any notable time during the year, or who do not return on the day appointed after the Christmas holidays, or who withdraw before the end of the year, have no claim to honors or distinctions for the Academic year.

Students will not be permitted to leave during the school year on visits of any length except at the Christmas holidays, and then only at the special request of the parents or guardians. There will be no vacation at Easter, and students are expected to remain at the University.

Applicants for admission, who have not attended another college, if not personally known to some member of the Faculty, must furnish a character certificate from some responsible person; those who have attended another college must produce papers showing their standing in the college they last attended.

The use of tobacco in any form whatever is prohibited. Those, however, who have attained the age of 18 years and furnish a written request from parents or guardians, are permitted to smoke at certain times and under certain restrictions.

All letters, papers and books sent or received by students are subject to the inspection of the superiors, and may be withheld if found to contain untruths, or anything dangerous to good morals.

Students who in any way damage furniture, etc., belonging to the University are required to make compensation.

After admission a student is examined, and classed according to his attainments. No branch of study can be discontinued before the general examination, and then only with the consent of the Prefect of Studies.

According to age or requirements students are ranged in to three departments and are in charge of six Prefects.

Classes are examined three times a year; in the study hall the result is read in the presence of the students and Faculty assembled; a bulletin reporting the health, conduct and progress of each pupil is then forwarded to his parents or guardians.

From the terms as above laid down sad experience has taught us not to deviate in the least. We will insist on prepayment in every instance, and those who are not willing to conform to this rule need not apply for admission.

Remittances should be made by draft, check, or registered letter. Money may also be sent by express to St. Joseph, Minn. Post-Money Orders should not be sent, as they frequently prove a source of annoyance.

Bills are sent at the beginning of every session. Persons delaying to pay bills are subject to sight draft WITHOUT NOTICE, and will be charged ten per cent. on all amounts due.

No student can leave the University before his accounts are paid.

Students will not be admitted for any period shorter than one session. Except in case of serious and protracted illness, or of dismissal, no reduction will be made and no money refunded on account of withdrawal before the end of the session.

No reduction is allowed for absence during the Christmas holidays.

The locality being healthy, and sickness very rare among the students, occasional medical attendance will be at the expense of those who require it.

The only musical instrument furnished by the University is the piano.

Books, stationery, medicine, music and drawing materials can be procured at the Institution, if a sum equivalent to the probable cost of such articles is deposited with the Treasurer.

No advance will be made by the Institution for clothing, pocket money or other expenses of the students. Parents who wish the University to procure any articles for their sons, are required to deposit an amount equivalent to the probable cost of such articles.
